Dear Handball Friends,

The International Handball Federation is delighted to be back in Croatia. We all still remember the high level of organization, when the Croatian Handball Federation had been hosting the 2003 Women's World Championship and the 2009 Men's World Championship.

This time, the women will again be in the focus – and recent events have shown that Croatian women's handball is managing its way out of the dark straight into the spotlight – as recently proved in London, when Croatia reached the women's quarter-finals of the 2012 Olympic Games.

Now the rising stars of women's elite handball will compete in the cities of Koprivnica, Dugo Selo, Zagreb and Čakovec at another major event, the IHF Women's Junior (U20) World Championship.

When recognizing the high performing level of the 2012 Women's Youth World Championship in Montenegro, we can expect a huge step forward of those young ladies who are on the brink to enter the women's teams of their respective 24 countries from four continents, which go for the medals in Croatia.

Some of those players will already participate at the 2015 Women's World Championship in Denmark. So the Women's Junior (U20) World Championship in Croatia will give a clear hint for the next handball generation, which will imprint the women's tournaments in the upcoming years. Just remember that World Handball Players of the Year like Cristina Neagu or Allison Pineau had already been leading their teams in the younger age categories to later-on rises to the top of our sport.

To organize a World Championship will bring handball in the focus of fans, sponsors and media – and I hope this competition will be another great step for the development of handball in the hosting country and in the other 23 participating nations. I'm convinced that we can expect a perfectly organized event, where the spirit of handball, but also the spirit of Fair Play will prevail.

I wish all participating teams the very best of luck in the tournament and a good time ahead. And I hope that handball will receive the public interest and audience the young players worked hard for in the last years.

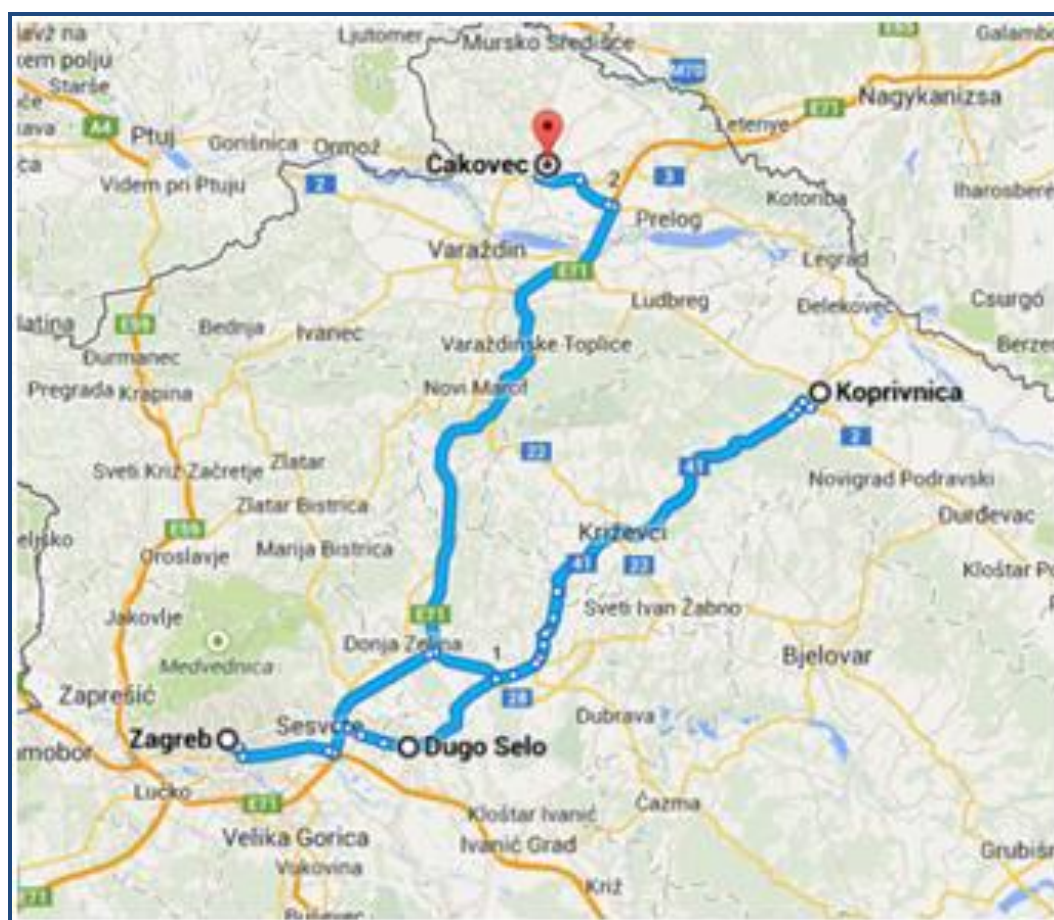

Dr Hassan Moustafa
IHF President

Each team may replace a maximum of two players (against two players indicated in the provisional list) during the entire tournament (e.g. each team may put in two new players or may put in a player who has already been replaced once), i.e. the 'list of 16' may be changed twice at most. Players may be replaced against players indicated in the provisional delegation list ('list of 28') only.

If a team has registered less than 16 players, it may register one additional player during the World Championship.

This includes, for instance, head protection, face masks, bracelets, watches, rings, visible piercings, necklaces or chains, earrings, glasses without restraining bands or with solid frames, or any other objects which could be dangerous (Rulebook 17:3).

Flat rings, small earrings and visible piercings may be allowed, as long as they are taped over in such a way that they are no longer deemed dangerous to other players. Headbands are allowed, as long as they are made of soft, elastic material.

Players who do not meet the aforementioned rule will not be allowed to take part until they have corrected the problem.

- b) one (1) set of dark-coloured shirts and one set of dark-coloured shorts

One colour should very clearly cover the major part of the shirt.

All players of a team used on the goalkeeper position must wear the same colour that distinguishes them from the court players of both teams and the goalkeeper(s) of the opposing team.

All goalkeepers of one team must wear the same shirt colour. This also applies to a court player temporarily acting as a goalkeeper.

In each match one team shall wear light-coloured shirts and the other team dark-coloured shirts.

The uniform sets (named 1st and 2nd in order of preference) of the teams shall appear on the team list.

At the initial Technical Meeting of the IHF competition, each delegation is obliged to show the two differently coloured sets of uniforms (court players and three as regards the goalkeeper).

The colours have to be decided at the initial Technical Meeting. The decision of colours in each match will be taken with participation of the team representatives and the IHF Technical Delegates. If they put on a sleeveless shirt, colour and type of that shirt must be identical to the goalkeeper shirt. No tolerance will be accepted.

During the entire IHF competition, each player must wear the same number, regardless of her position (goalkeeper or court player).

Players' Names

The player's surname or popular name, that is identical to that indicated in the team list, must be displayed, in clearly legible 7cm high (minimum) capital letters, above the player's number on the back of the shirt. Match Evaluation and Determination of Places

Preliminary Round

The preliminary round is played in groups. Matches shall be evaluated as follows:

- each match won = 2 points
- each match drawn = 1 point for each team
- each match lost = no points

Teams are ranked according to the total number of points gained.

If two or more teams have gained the same number of points after the group matches have been completed, classification is decided as follows:

- results in points between the teams concerned;
- goal differences in the matches between the teams concerned;
- greater number of plus goals in the matches between the teams concerned.

If the teams are still equal, a decision is made between those teams with an equal number of points as follows:

- goal difference is subtracted in all matches
- greater number of plus goals in all matches

If classification still is not possible, a draw shall decide. The IHF representative on site shall execute the draw, if possible in the presence of the 'responsible team officials'. If the 'responsible team official' cannot be present, other co-workers selected by the IHF shall take part.

After completion of the preliminary round, all matches shall be played in accordance with the knock-out system.

Eighth-finals, quarter-finals, semi-finals and finals (places 1-2 and 3-4)

In case the match is tied at the end of the regular playing time overtime is played, following a 5-minute break. The overtime period consists of 2 halves of 5 minutes, with a 1-minute half-time break.

If the game is again tied after a first overtime period, a second period is played after a 5-minute break. This overtime period also has 2 halves of 5 minutes, with a 1-minute half-time break.

If the game is still tied, the winner will be determined in accordance with a 7m throwing as tie-breaker to decide a winner (see Rule 2:2 of the Rules of the Game).

Placement round and placement matches

In case of a draw at the end of the regular playing time 7m penalty throwing shall be used to decide a winner in accordance with Rule 2:2 of the Rules of the Game.

Cancellation or Discontinuation of Match

If the match is cancelled or discontinued, the Competition Management shall decide on further action.

Official Balls

Balls of IHF partner Molten will be used at the 2014 Women's Junior (U20) World Championship. Every participating team will receive 10 balls in advance to get familiar with the balls.

Anti-Doping

Doping tests will again be carried out at the 2014 Women's Junior (U20) World Championship. Further information will be provided by the IHF Anti-Doping Unit (ADU). Please contact the ADU for further queries you may have.
